FIGHT IN A STREET CAR.

Because Henry Norton, aged 72, a government clerk, slightly jostled her when he took the only remaining seat in a crowded Pennsylvania avenue car in Washington, last night, Louise Phillips, a young negro woman, struck him in the face. Before Norton could be stopped he had knocked the woman

Mr. Norton boarded the car at the Georgetown transfer point opposite the treasury. He crowded himself into the only remaining seat, which was near the woman. She showed her displeasure by mumbling remarks to which Mr. Norton paid no attention.

At Seventh street the Phillips woman arose to transfer to the Seventh street ine, and as she started out of the car she turned to Mr. Norton, remarking in a loud voice: "You old gray-headed poor white trash; I'll teach you how to sult a lady," and she struck Mr. Norton in the face with her hand. Norton knocked the woman down. She attempted to rise, and at each effort she was again promptly knocked Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine closet among the reliable household remedies where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run nto a had case of catarrh.
